

Featured Wines from Sustainable & Solar Powered Vineyards

2016 Broadside Wild Ferment Chardonnay,

Paso Robles 10 | 40

Bouyant and brimming with fresh life by virtue of wild fermentation, this Chardonnay sings, zings, and brings the vitality of summer to the table with you.

2014 Broadside Printers Alley Red Blend,

Paso Robles 10 | 40

This Bordeaux-style blend unites classic varietals and a definite European winemaking sensibility with the terroir and climate of Paso Robles. Its palate yields rounded berry and cherry flavors.

2016 Dry Creek Valley Fume (Sauvignon) Blanc,

California 9 | 36

A beautifully complex, layered wine that is nonetheless instantly refreshing and friendly! Great balance of fruit to acid, with a warm and round finish that doesn't lose its satisfying minerality

2017 J. Dusi Pinot Grigio, Palo Robles 8 | 32

Deeper and richer everything pours out of this porch-pounder, er, delightful Pinot Grigio! Rounded flavors of stone fruits couple with a slick glide to pack unique expressiveness into this refreshing wine.

2016 J. Dusi Model M, Paso Robles 8 | 32

Named after the trusty tractor that works their fields, the Model M is driven by Zinfandel, lush and full in the Paso Robles style. Spice and full texture come with the addition of Syrah and Petite Sirah.

2013 Ancient Oak Berger Vineyard Cabernet

Sauvignon, Sonoma 95

Deep, full and firm with cigar box, leather and plum on the nose. The raspberry and sweet cherry fruit tastes of oak and spice, with developing and lingering accents of chocolate, anise and sweet tobacco. Velvety and plush upon opening, decanting recommended.
